

REMINDER: IT'S TIME TO LEVEL UP FOR GIRLS!

Dear Sir/Madam,

In two weeks, on Tuesday 3 September, the Girls Advocacy Alliance (GAA) welcomes you at New World Campus in The Hague, for our Level Up for Girls! event. The event will take place from 12:30 to 16:00 and will include lunch. For a fun interaction with the youth advocates, we are organizing speed dating sessions!

If you have not registered yet, make sure you don't miss a unique opportunity to engage with the inspiring youth advocates and sign up here before 26 august.

On 3 September, you will be given the opportunity to directly engage with 23 inspiring youth advocates from ten different Asian and African countries. Together, we will exchange thoughts and experiences and discuss challenges and opportunities to reduce harmful gender norms.

We are proud to present Justine van de Beek as our keynote speaker. Justine is the newly appointed Youth Ambassador for Sexual and Reproductive Health and Rights and a sociologist specialized in gender and sexuality. She initiated the online feminist platform Harlot and frequently speaks out on gender issues.

Our moderator is young, entertaining and an expert on youth participation: Hajar Yagkoubi (Dutch UN youth representative on Human Rights and Security). As a youth representative, Hajar represents the voice of the future. She engages in conversations with Dutch school students and represents them at Dutch ministries and the UN to make sure that their voices are being heard. Because the decisions that are made today, determine tomorrow's future.

We are very much looking forward to welcoming you to an exciting afternoon on 3 September. Additional information about the location and the programme will be shared with you a few days ahead of the event.
