

Nasima Omari

Nasima Omari has completed her higher education in Geo Science Faculty at Kabul University and then obtained her MA in Sustainable Development Practices with TERI University, New Delhi, India.

Ms. Omari has more than 10 years of working experience in different sectors. She previously served as Afghan Women Network Board member and contributed to improving women's situation in Afghanistan. She has experience of being lecturer at National Military Academy of Afghanistan, she worked in different role with different organization.

She started her work with Cordaid in 2015, and worked with programs like Inclusive governance and improved security through influencing , Monitoring Women's Peace and Security in Afghanistan and Inclusive security and inclusive Justice under Security & Justice portfolio.

Nasima Omari is currently lead for Creating Access for Inclusive Peace process in Afghanistan program and coordinating Strategic partnership on Lobby & Advocacy as Lobby & Advocacy program manager. She has also provided numbers of training on gender awareness to CSOs, Youth groups and different organizations on her role in Cordaid as gender focal point since 2015 till 2020.

More about Nasima Omari's work at the international level:

- <https://www.cordaid.org/en/news/if-needed-they-take-their-folding-chairs-afghan-women-claim-a-seat-at-us-taliban-talks/>
- <https://www.cordaid.org/en/news/every-step-is-a-victory-peace-activism-in-the-frontline/>
- <https://www.cordaid.org/en/news/we-have-to-protect-ourselves-defending-womens-rights-in-afghanistan-under-lockdown/>
- <https://www.cordaid.org/en/news/women-need-gain-ownership-afghan-peace-process/>
- http://awn-af.net/index.php/cms/board_detail/1256
- <https://www.losservatorio.org/en/civilians-in-conflict/reports/item/2212-women-s-inclusion-in-peacebuilding-process-during-the-pandemic>
- https://www.amnestyusa.org/files/pdfs/afghan_women_signatories_page.pdf

E-mail: onasima@gmail.com & nom@cordaid.org