

Aniek Moonen

Since the beginning of 2020, Aniek Moonen has been a board member at the Young Climate Movement, the umbrella organization that unites the voice of Dutch youth organizations (and therefore more than 100,000 young people) in the climate debate. As a board member, she is responsible for the Young Climate Agenda and the We Are Tomorrow Global Partnership. The Young Climate Agenda is the sustainable vision document for 2050 for Dutch youth. The We Are Tomorrow Global Partnership (WAT-GP) is a unique collaboration between youth organizations from eleven countries, each of which is committed to more ambitious climate policies and meaningful youth participation in their own countries.
